

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 14.

A MURDEROUS CAT.—Mrs. Atkinson, of Allegheny, Pa., entered her nursery last Wednesday and was horrified at what she saw. The family cat had attacked her six-year-old child, who was lying sick on the bed. The cat was sitting on the breast of the boy. Each of its fore paws was firmly fixed in the child's cheek and its mouth was glued to that of the boy. He was struggling as much as he could, and with one paw was trying to push the cat away. As soon as the animal saw the lady it showed fight. It scratched the child's face in a terrible manner, and springing upon the mother bit her on the shoulder. She finally beat it off by stabbing it with a pair of shears. Her cries brought assistance, and after restoratives had been administered the child was able to talk. He knew nothing except that the cat had wakened him up, trying, as he said, "to take my breath." The little fellow is in a precarious condition.

"My dear," said a wife to her husband, "I know that I am not as patient as I should be, and think the same can be said of you." "Yes, certainly," he frankly acknowledged; "I am almost as bad as you are." "I think," went on the lady, "that we ought to cultivate a mutual toleration of each other's faults." And she bent over him and fondly kissed him. "You are not looking well to-night, dear," he said, stroking her hair. "No," she replied, "my feet pain me dreadfully." "That's because you wear shoes two sizes too small for you." Then the trouble began once more.

"The Slough of Despondency" in which you are wallowing, on account of some of those diseases peculiar to you, madame, and which have robbed you of the rose hue of health, and made life a burden to you, you can easily get out of. Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" will free you from all such troubles, and soon recall the rosetint of health to your cheek, and the elasticity to your step. It is a most perfect specific for all the weaknesses and irregularities peculiar to your sex. It cures ulceration, displacements, "internal fever," bearing down sensations, removes the tendency to cancerous affections, and corrects all unnatural discharges. By druggists.

TO THE HOLDERS

Virginia Consols and 10-40 Bonds

We are authorized by the council of foreign bondholders to call the attention of holders of Virginia consols and 10-40s to the fact that the English bondholders are endeavoring, through the instrumentality of the council of foreign bondholders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the debt of Virginia.
With this object in view, the English bondholders have, to a large extent, agreed to pool their bonds and have authorized the council of foreign bondholders to act for them in the negotiations which are about to be had between a commission sent out from London and a committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia.
It is most desirable that all holders of Virginia bonds, both at home and abroad, should unite in the effort to effect an early settlement of the debt. To better accomplish this object, the council of foreign bondholders earnestly request the holders of Virginia bonds in America to cooperate with them and to forward to ourselves their names and addresses, stating the amount of bonds held, at as early a day as possible.
We will be glad to furnish copies of the plan adopted by the English bondholders for pooling their bonds at London, and to give any other information that may be desired.
